JOURNEYS: Paving Our Way Home

In the course of historical events, each generation must undergo its journey of trials and tribulations, bearing witness to unfathomable strife.

We honor the extraordinary individuals who, through their courage and sacrifice, paved the way for many to return home, restored justice, and gave us hope for the future.

Honor our post-war legacy of peace, justice, and reconciliation.

Join us at our new MIS Historic Learning Center, Building 640, set in the beautiful National Park Service's Presidio of San Francisco. With breathtaking views of the Golden Gate Bridge at sunset, savor the tastings of La Mar Cebicheria Peruana's cuisine and explore the museum's exhibits.
